PORTENTOUS OUSE ON BIG WAR FRONTS

Armies Indulging in a Breathing Spell, Evidently Preparatory to Violent Hostilities

NO NOTABLE CHANGE IN ANY OF THE WAR ZONES

On the Russian Front Merely Artillery Duels and Infantry Attacks by Small Detachments are Reported—The French Have Captured Several German Trenches and Organized Points for Support—Rome Announces Repulse of Austrian Attacks With Severe Losses—In the Caucasus Region the Russians are Keeping Up Their Advance Against the Turks—Germans Have Made Another Air Raid on Eastern Counties of England, the Third This Week.

The armies in the three great centers of recent activity—the Somme region of France, Russia and Galicia—evidently have let in considerably in the violent fighting in which they have been engaged and are indulging in a breathing spell preparatory to further attacks and counter-attacks. The official communications dealing with the operations in these theatres Wednesday tell of no signal important engagement or of any notable changes in the position of any of the belligerents. Attacking in Echelon on a three-mile line from the Meuse river to Fleury, north of Verdun, the French have captured several German trenches and organized points of support. The engagement 600 German men were made prisoners and ten machine guns were captured. On the Russian front Petrograd reports merely artillery duels and infantry attacks by small detachments. While Berlin tells of Russian attacks on the Silesian and Tatra river fronts and of local Russian offensives on the Silesian front, all of which were repulsed. Attacks by the Austrians against the Italians at various points, including Monte Cimone, Monte Seluggio and Castellato, have been repulsed with heavy casualties, according to Rome. The Russians are keeping up their advance against the Turks in the Caucasus region. The Germans have carried out another air raid on the eastern counties of England—the third during the present week.

ZEPPELINS DROPPED BOMBS ON EASTERN ENGLAND
